Sir

Yours of the 2nd Inst directed to the Hon. Wm C. Dawson 1, enclosed by him to me, is before me. In that letter you remark, "The additional evidence in the case of Elizabeth Cloud is insufficient to shew that her intermarriage with Ezekiel Cloud occurs before the year 1800. The family record indicates that she was born in 1784 & that Lewis Cloud her eldest child was born in 1802, further evidence should be adduced as to the date of the marriage." You have enough enclosed some of the testimony of file in your office. We have proven by having ourselves that Lewis Cloud is the second child of Ezekiel & Elizabeth Cloud. The first child died immediately after its birth and in consequence of which its name and birth was never recorded. perhaps it was still born. Now Lewis Cloud is the second child. & was born in 1802, the conclusion is irresistable, that she was married before 1800. and this fact appears from the testimony of file. The Rules was furnished to Study this the testimony already submitted. It seems to me strange that the pension office should require stronger & better proof than would be required by our Courts. We are prepared to submit other testimony, shewing that Levi Cloos is the second son & such proof will avail us. So many years have elapsed since these circumstances that it is very difficult to make positive proof of the fact & hence we have resorted to the best circumstantial proof at our command. Will you have the kindness to re-examine the testimony & advise me, what further proof will be required.

Very Truly

Attention Director Revolutionary & 1812, War Section:

Dear Sir :-

The records of Revolutionary War soldiers, on file at the Library in Atlanta, Georgia, show that one Ezekiel Cloud, was a pensioner, resident of Henry County, Georgia.

With view to checking an application for membership in the Georgia Society, Sons of the American Revolution, kindly furnish me the following information from Ezekiel Cloud, Records if available, viz:

(1) Name of his children?.

(2) Name of his father?.

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Sir: I understand that Ezekiel Cloud drew pension for services in Revolutionary War, and would like to have his record. He was from Georgia and his grave is near McDonough, Ga.

Referring to data obtained in a former inquiry on the record of Notley Maddox B. L. Wt. 12392 - 100 Bk. Law, it stated that Notley Maddox died prior to June 7, 1832 leaving children. Is there any data on this record that would show where he was living at this time. There was more than one Notley Maddox with different records and I have been unable to establish proof of my particular one. Family tradition gives that he was a Revolutionary soldier, fought in Virginia, migrated to Georgia - on to Tennessee where he died. I also have names of children, so if one of these could be obtained it would prove his record.

Respectfully Yours

Mr. Winfield Scott

Dear Sir: -

In January 1926, I wrote a note to the Bureau of Pensions, asking for a record of the services of a Revolutionary Soldier, Ezekiel Elwell, who received a pension - Your reply, dated Jan. 13-1926- I sent to the D. A. R. Registrar, to prove the claim of Mrs Mary Louise Thomas - It was not accepted, and have just learned why - I feel the copy must be incorrect - Some ten members of this Elwell dependants are accepted members of the Daughters and have been for several yrs.

Howell Cloud. (still living in Atlanta Ga.) son of Andrew Jackson Cloud, and Mary Becker.

grandson of Ezekiel Cloud and Elizabeth Harmon.

This Mr. Howell Cloud has a copy of his grandfathers' pension papers.

C.W. and K. Division.

F.C.

No. 6920.

This copy gives Elizabeth Harmon as the name of his wife, which is correct. I have seen the old Family Bible records.

The copy you sent, gives his wife'

name as Elizabeth Jones - which is not right -

The Bible records give -

Ezekiel Cloud. born March 14th 1753 died June 30 - 1850 - married Nov. 15 - 1795

Elizabeth Harman - b. 1783 - married

This Elizabeth Harman was his first and only wife - she was a daughter of Hezekiah Harman, and Elizabeth Jones. Her middle name may have been Jones, after her Mother, but the Old Bible record does not give it.

Will you please see if there was not a mistake made, in copying the name - It was Elizabeth Harman Cloud who received the pension, after her Husbands death and Elizabeth Harmon is the name given on the copy Mrs. Howell Cloud has.

Thanking you for your trouble, I am

Sincerely

(Mrs Frederick) Florence P.B. Morgan

The additional evidence in the case of Elizabeth Cloud is insufficient to show that her intermarriage with Ezekiel occurred before the year 1800. The family record indicates that she was born in 1784, and that Levi Cloud, the eldest child was born in 1802. Further evidence should be adduced as to the date of the marriage.

Dear Sir

Miss Elizabeth Cloud & I have been conversing with this evening & looking over her old Papers, but as Cloud Papers were burnt about A.D. 1808 I found no Papers Cotemporaneous with Revolutionary dates—

But to begin with She has been refused Pensions by your predecessor cause not enumerated— and She has been refused bounty Land by you in her application under act of March 1855—

Now the old Lady is entitled to both Pensions & bounty Land if we can procure the proofs you desire—

And first her applications for Pensions filed by Dodd & Nolan 3 or 4 years since of Course these Papers are on file & We think the Pensions ought to be sent us to use for her— Of Course being the Widow of Revolutionary Pensioner this is a Plain case & I think you will pay reference to the Application for bounty Land application—

Please examine into this old Mothers at once & let me know if the Pensions Can Come & if not why—

In talking with the old Lady this evening She was eloquent relating the hair breadth escapes & adventures of Cloud— & I was very much interested & as we fail for want of Record evidence

under Capt Borter & Col Williamson
I know you will feel much of interest in the old Lady to examine the Books of the Stories I mention below
as She Spoke eloquently of her husband
Service with Those officers & of his Home
Officers in Books if any let me know whether to make out an application anew or correct the present one

She Says her husband Served in all Revolutionary War & Indian disputes until about 1790.
All the Service in Georgia

She has heard him Speak of having Served in Revolutionary War under Capt Nail - Col Dooly - Gen
Clark - Capt Daniel Gunnels - Lieutenant Borber - And of having Served after the War possibly about 1791 Under Capt Bowen - (given name Owen ?) Col Fauche or as She pronounces it Fosh - Captain Stewart &c, Thinks all the Services were in Georgia -

Now you entering can do Something for an old Lady who in my opinion has more Merits in her case than any one I have ever applied for
If you will have these books looked to

Among his Papers not burned
I only found a partial description of a Fight. written years afterwards possibly as late as 1820 at Fort Hunter Geo

A D 1782 with Creek Indians while serving under Capt Gunnels & Lieutenant George Barber —

I found also the old letter enclosed to you which speaks of certificates of himself & one Robert Cross — which when you have examined it it Elicits nothing enclose to me — It seems to recognize that certificates of Service existed as late as 1827 —

Please now let me hear from you soon as to both Persons & bounty Land under new Offices opened to —

Very Truly
D. R. Blair

It seems to me that this old letter is Constructive evidence of Record Service now in existence that ought to entitle her to Bounty Land by liberal construction of act — as it of date that could not have been manufactured for purposes of this Kind —

Send old Letter back when examined —
